1973
EIGHT ACRES dedicated to

Eliza Bennett Heavey

It is appropriate to commemorate Holland Hall's 50th anniversary by dedicating Eight Acres to Mrs. Eliza Bennett Heavey. Her leadership spans 25 years, half the school's history, and exemplifies the dedication through with Holland Hall has prospered.

Mrs. Heavey came to Holland Hall as Headmistress in 1948. Under her guidance Holland Hall changed from a girls' boarding school to a strong co-educational day school. The Birmingham campus was expanded, and the school began its affiliation with the Episcopal Church. Her 13 years as Headmistress gave Holland Hall direction and stability.

What she has meant to the school may be seen more impressively in what she has meant to her students. If one principle has guided her work in the classroom, it is a sincere respect for the student as a person.

"Her very presence in the school has enhanced the atmosphere," Headmaster Herbert B. Moore stated. "Seldom can one say about a school person what can be said about Eliza Heavey — that faculty and parents, as well as students, have benefited from the privilege of watching her live."

It is appropriate that Mrs. Heavey's retirement this year coincides with our celebration of the school's history. We believe her contribution to Holland Hall has not ended, for, in helping to shape the school's past, she has helped to build its future.

MIDDLE SCHOOL BASKETBALL

Lucia — Well, why I am being so constructive and signing this little job, I really don't know. But while I am at it, I shall try to be a little sentimental and sweet (this is difficult, you realize) We really had a blast in Spanish, didn't we? Too much of our sophomore year has already been forgotten, which is too bad cuz the best times are always the littlest things. Remember mud-stomping ... and move your chair ... and speedball ... and V.B. ... and spending hours talking to Derf. and all that fantastic stuff we did when we were immature sophs. But now that we are sophisacated juniors, it will all be different. We will spend all our "unscheduled" mods doing homework and reviewing colleges. YAH!! Babe, well, have another great year, just like the last two. Ya know, we've gotta go to Mexico with Bachman this year. Is it a deal?? Be good and that's all!

Bobby Sue.

The seven worlds of Mij offer standing tribute to Holland Halls Class of '73. Since her beginning, Mij has been both friend and fashion setter to the world of Holland Hall. As she's watched you come and go, its kinda nice to turn back the pages and remember. . . .

Congrats ! and may success be each of yours in the years to come.

Best Wishes,
Mij
